

Welcome to Seaside

"Seaside" consists of a house and two attached cottages, situated on the Newton Shore at Lochranza, Isle of Arran, Scotland. The house and one cottage are available for let all year round, on a weekly basis Saturday to Saturday. Daily lets are negotiable between November and February. We regularly occupy one of the cottages ourselves.

We ask you not to arrive before 3pm and to vacate by 11am on the day of departure.

Both houses have colour television, DVD Player and an all electric kitchen fully equipped with cooker, fridge, dishwasher, automatic washing machine and immersion heater.

Please note:

All beds have double duvets. Please bring duvet covers and sheets and pillowslips. Please also bring towels for the bathroom and kitchen.

There is car parking for both houses at the top of the gravel drive at the side of the white cottage.

If you want to bring a dog, please tell us.

The Main House

The main house has two public rooms, three bedrooms, a kitchen and bathroom with shower over the bath. Two bedrooms have two single beds each; the third has a single bed; a z-bed and a cot are available also. The house has electric central heating and one of the public rooms has an open fire.

The Barn

The Barn has one public room with kitchen, one bedroom with two single beds and a bathroom with shower over the bath. The Barn has electric central heating and there is an open fire in the public room. Access is at the rear of the cottage

Travelling to Seaside

It is advisable to book the Ardrossan - Brodick ferry, details of which are available from Caledonian Macbrayne <http://www.calmac.co.uk/> or telephone 0800 665 000. If you are travelling from the north of Scotland you may wish to travel on the small ferry from Claonaig in Argyll direct to Lochranza. Details from the same number but it is not bookable.
